

RETICENCE

Observed at White House Regarding Peace Role of Entente Allies

FIND NO HOPE FOR PEACE

Future Viewed With Increasing Soberness Because of Increasing Difficulty In Maintaining Neutrality—Von Bernstorff Says Germany Won't Violate Submarine Pledges

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Wilson began a careful and deliberate examination of the ententes' reply to his peace note to determine what opportunity it presents for a further move on his part and in what way one may be accomplished. The entente note was discussed at the regular meeting of the cabinet and privately between the president and Secretary Lansing.

All quarters agreed that while the entente has made a complete reply to the president's request for a statement of terms, the note seemed to offer no hope for an early end of the war but fortunately still did not close the door upon further effort on the president's part.

Several courses of action lie before the president. Among them is another move to ask Germany to state specific terms as the allies have done. Diplomats say that with replies from both sets of belligerents in hand it would be perfectly legitimate to communicate the answer of one set to the other.

The German diplomats here were outspoken in their denunciation of the allied note and their declarations that such terms never would be accepted.

Admittedly the note was more severe than even they had been led to expect and they declared the German allies were prepared to fight on.

The next steps by the United States will be chosen by the utmost deliberation and because of the delicate stage which the negotiations are certain to enter from this time, it would be no surprise if they were conducted entirely in secret without publication of the exchanges until some definite point had been reached.

President Wilson discussed both the entente and German notes with colonel E. M. House, who arrived here last night. Colonel House had engagements with a number of government officials and planned to return to New York late today.

At the White House today extraordinary reticence was observed. It was said the president would not be hurried into a decision on the attitude of the American government.

Secretary Lansing refused to discuss the entente reply or the plans of this government on the ground that he had not read the note with great care.

It was stated officially however that whether the entente reply will be forwarded to the central powers and the latter's reply forwarded to the entente had not yet been decided and probably will not be for several days pending a most careful examination of the whole situation.

Briefly officials feel that the allies have stated terms while refusing a conference, whereas the Germans have suggested a conference without stating their terms. Nevertheless, it is felt that the international situation has been decidedly clarified.

Officials obviously view the future with increasing soberness. President Wilson's original statement in his note that neutrality was becoming intolerable and Secretary Lansing's statement that the United States was being drawn to the verge of war were recalled in view of the probability that hostilities are likely to continue.

Ambassador Bernstorff's reiterated assurance that Germany will not violate her submarine pledges to this country is held not incompatible with activities that could not be tolerated by this country but might be conducted on the basis that there is such a divergence of view as to the international law involved.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Wilson began a careful and deliberate examination of the ententes' reply to his peace note to determine what opportunity it presents for a further move on his part and in what way one may be accomplished. The entente note was discussed at the regular meeting of the cabinet and privately between the president and Secretary Lansing.

Fred Gump, Jr.

Harry Thaw again faces the possibility of spending several years in prison as a result of the story told by Frederick Gump, Jr., nineteen-year-old youth of Kansas City, Mo. Gump charges that Thaw, posing as a friend, kidnaped him and assaulted him in a New York hotel.

WOMAN FOUND MURDERED IN ROOM AT HOTEL

COLUMBUS, Jan. 12.—An unidentified woman was found murdered in a room at the Deshler hotel here. She had two bullet wounds in her head and was found in a room occupied by a man registering as V. Vanbrunt, of Chicago. Her throat was cut and her arms and chin hacked.

Police are satisfied the woman found in a local hotel here today was murdered. In a bathroom connected with the room were found tools bearing bloody finger prints.

The woman's body was found lying on the floor partly under the bed. She was poorly clad and about 23 years of age. She wore a hat purchased at a local millinery store. The housekeeper at the hotel found the woman's body.

Local police this afternoon instigated a country wide search for a mysterious man who registered as "C. V. Vanbrunt of Chicago," at a local hotel where the unknown girl was found murdered.

BRITISH STILL HAMMER AWAY AT GERMAN LINE

With the British armies in France, Jan. 12. Via London.—Through rain, mist, fog and deep mud the British army is continuing day by day to pound the German line. Although there has been no distinctly spectacular movement recently, day and night trench raids and the drumming of the artillery have continued. These operations have yielded a constant flow of prisoners and have kept the casualty lists growing. According to the stories told by the prisoners the British tactics have harassed the German troops almost beyond endurance.

The last week has witnessed some of the most successful minor operations, culminating with an attack before dawn today north of Beaumont Hamel. This action brought the total of prisoners taken in this area in the last three days to 300 and placed in British hands some important sections of trenches. On Tuesday night the British attacked a desired section of the German lines which was taken with a yield of 130 prisoners.

AVIATORS ARE STILL MISSING

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 12.—More than 40 hours have passed without word from the missing aviators, Lieut. Colonel Harry G. Bishop and Lieut. W. A. Robertson, Jr., and failure to hear from them has caused anxiety in aviation circles here.

POISON

Was Not Taken by Thaw When He Attempted to Take His Life

DETECTIVES GUARD WARD

Condition Has Not Yet Permitted Detectives to Question Man On Charges Brought By High School Boy—Family and Friends Believe Attempt at Blackmail Was Made

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Harry K. Thaw, who attempted suicide yesterday while in seclusion in the home of a west Philadelphia family, was improved today, and according to physicians he will be able to leave St. Mary's hospital within probably two weeks. Dr. Ellwood R. Kirby, of this city, said today he felt sure Thaw had not taken poison. The finding of slow poison tablets in Thaw's pocket gave rise to the fear that he may have swallowed one. The physician said Thaw showed none of the early symptoms of the poison and that his condition was satisfactory.

Dr. Kirby said he found Thaw's mind still somewhat hazy this morning as though he were suffering from the effects of a drug or liquor.

Captain of Detectives Tate expressed the opinion that Thaw does not realize that he is under arrest. Later in the day, he said, he will question Thaw and try to draw out of him a statement regarding the Gump charges. Captain Tate will probably be accompanied by Assistant District Attorney Black of New York.

When Thaw is able to leave the hospital, Captain Tate said, he will be arraigned before a police magistrate on a charge of attempting suicide.

Whether the family will contest the efforts of the New York authorities to have Thaw surrendered to them is not definitely known here. It is said a conference of members of the Thaw family and close friends will be held later in the day to determine what steps to take to combat the New York charges. According to private detectives in the employ of the Thaw family, the Gump charges are looked upon as an attempt of blackmail.

The Philadelphia detectives are not satisfied with the story told by Samuel Maloney, the Philadelphia representative of a New York detective agency, that he had made arrangements to have Thaw turned over to District Attorney Swan in New York. Maloney said he took Thaw to the quiet residential district of West Philadelphia so as to get him in condition to be taken to New York. Maloney said Thaw had been making the rounds of cafes here and when he got word from New York that Thaw was about to be arrested he thought the best thing to do was to keep him in seclusion for a few days.

Captain of Detectives Tate made it known that he purposed investigating Maloney to learn whether anyone was guilty of an attempt to obstruct justice in hiding Thaw. Maloney, who formerly was a political leader in one of the Philadelphia wards, said he has a fear of an investigation. He added that arrangements had been completed to surrender Thaw. Among those who took part in making these arrangements, he further said, was the counsel for the Thaw family in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Thaw, it is said, will not come here until her son's condition demands her presence or unless he insists that she be sent for. The hospital authorities are keeping her informed of his condition.

Thaw occupies a suite of two rooms and a bath adjoining which is a large porch. Six Philadelphia detectives have been assigned to the hospital where they are working in shifts. Every precaution has been taken by the police to prevent Thaw doing any further harm to himself, notwithstanding the report that he last night said he was glad he did not kill himself.

Frank Johnston, an attorney of New York, and Dr. Walter Riddell of Pittsburgh, are here to look after Thaw's interests.

"I was with Thaw in this city last Monday night," said Johnston. "At that time Harry was in high spirits. I noticed nothing wrong or unusual about him. The members of Thaw's family are very suspicious of this boy's charges against Harry. The fact that the mother of this youth has saved up various pieces of evidence arouses suspicion and weakens the case. Further than that, I can say nothing now."

Dr. Riddell said he came out on a professional capacity but as the personal representative of Thaw's father.

NOTE HAS LITTLE EFFECT ON WHEAT

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—So far as the wheat market showed at the opening today the answer of the entente allies to President Wilson's peace note has been largely discounted in advance. The maximum advance in first transactions was 2-4 cents on May delivery, which touched $1.90 a bushel, as against $1.87 1-4 at $1.87 1-2 at yesterday's finish.

Doctor Arrested, Charges Attempt to Blackmail Him

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12.—While gaining his temporary release in municipal court yesterday on bond of $10,000, Dr. James L. Holden, 1059 Bryden Road, arrested for an alleged illegal operation on Miss Della Snelling, aged 13, Therville, February 7, 1916, said his arrest was "an attempt to blackmail."

According to Dr. Holden's attorney, he was sued a year ago by the father, Edward S. Snelling. The case will be heard this morning.

Some years ago Dr. Holden was mayor of Zanesville. He came into some prominence at the time of King Edward's death, when it was said he had been called in to diagnose the king's ailment at the instance of his relative, Mrs. W. B. Leeds.

NEWARK MEN SEE EMBROIDERY WHEN MUNITION PLANT BURNS

Fred W. Wolcott of the Adams Express Co. and W. S. Wright of the Janitor Co. were witnesses of the burning of the munition plant at Kings Island, N. J.

On a train at the station, they transferred on route to Newark. The train was about 10 minutes from the scene and could not stop because of the darkness and the noise of the exploding shells.

Witnesses observed that the burning of the plant was a very serious one. The burning of the plant was a very serious one. The burning of the plant was a very serious one.

NO EVIDENCE

TO SUSTAIN LEAK CHARGES IS REPORT OF MAJORITY OF RULES COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The "leak" investigation was brought into the house today with a report by the Democratic majority of the rules committee that no evidence had been found and opposition from the Republican minority which contended that evidence of a "leak" had been shown.

The majority report was brief. Presented by Chairman Henry it merely said, "no evidence was adduced sustaining the charges in the (Wood) resolution."

Representative Campbell offered as a substitute his resolution to make the widest inquiry into all angles of the leak charges.

"Not one particle of evidence was adduced to sustain the resolution offered by Representative Wood," said Chairman Henry. "No Democrat will admit that there was any warrant found for these charges and surely no Republican will assert that there was any evidence found to sustain them."

"There is another resolution, the original resolution for an inquiry into a leak in the president's message still before the committee. A subcommittee has been appointed to consider the conduct of a continuous witness, Thomas W. Lawson, who refused to answer certain questions. These matters may be considered by the committee and the house later."

Representative Wood of Indiana, author of the resolution, addressed the house declaring he had no apology to make for his action.

"I was compelled to introduce the resolution," said Wood, "because everywhere both in and out of Congress there were reports that officials in high places had profited on the stock market through advance information. There still is a general belief throughout the country that there is something wrong somewhere. That there was a leak every member of this house believes. To deny it would be ridiculous. As to whether it was caused by a spy or not, there may be an honest difference of opinion on that point."

After Representative Cantrell of Kentucky, a Democrat, dissenting from the views of his colleagues had declared that the rules committee could not commit the charge to a subcommittee, Chairman Henry asked unanimous consent that the Wood "leak" resolution be reconsidered and that the committee be directed to take Lawson for its subject and to continue to refuse to answer questions. The sudden turn in the situation precipitated a parliamentary battle with the prospect that the house would be recalled.

The house adjourned at 1 P. M. without voting on the leak resolution.

CORONER WILL NOT CHARGE LEWIS WITH MURDER OF MODEL

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—Coroner Knight, who has been looking into the murder of Miss Colebert, the advertising art model, said today that unless more direct evidence was found concerning him with the case, he would not instruct a jury to render a verdict that Bernard W. Lewis of Pittsburgh, was the slayer. Lewis committed suicide as he was about to be arrested.

The coroner said that only circumstantial evidence has been found to link Lewis' name with the death of Miss Colebert and that it would be an injustice to the Lewis family to place the responsibility for the crime upon him.

CHIEF HEALY TO BE REDUCED TO RANK OF CAPTAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Former Chief of Police Charles C. Healy, accused of conspiracy and receiving thousands of dollars tribute from the underworld is to be reinstated as a captain of police and immediately granted a 24-day leave of absence, it was decided today. The leave of absence is in accordance with the department rule of granting leave during investigation of charges against officers.

SAY ATTACK REPULSED

BIRMINGHAM, Jan. 12.—(Saville wire.)—Two attacks were made by British troops early this morning on the French front north of the Aisne river. North of Beaumont the British gained initial success, the war office announced, but were driven back with heavy losses by a counter attack. A British near Serre broke down under the German fire. The Rumanian town of Laburtea was captured yesterday by the invading Teutonic troops, the war office announced. The Russians were driven back toward the Sereth between Braila and Galatz.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 12.—Anarchist plots to assassinate Governor Hiram W. Johnson, U. S. senator from California, were revealed today in the office of Alexander Berkman, a Russian anarchist. Several weeks ago, Hiram W. Johnson, U. S. senator from California, was told by a Russian anarchist, Frank A. Griffin, in the Mooner murder trial today.

MARSHAL DEAD; OFFICIALS RUSH MAN TO SAFE PLACE

COVINGTON, Ohio, Jan. 12.—After barricading himself in his father-in-law's home and withstanding the efforts of a posse to capture him all during the night, Bert Clark walked out this morning with his baby in his arms and surrendered to the posse. He was wanted on a charge of having killed H. H. Hake, village marshal, who the latter is alleged to have attempted to arrest him last night on a murder charge. Hake's head was literally blown off by a charge from a shotgun. Clark was rushed to the Troy O. jail and a charge of murder was preferred against him.

BURSTING

Shells in Burning Munition Plant Dirves Villagers to Seek Shelter

$4,000,000 LOSS RESULTS

Telephone Operator In the Building Where Fire Originated Sticks to Post Until She Had Warned All Workmen In Other Buildings—Magazines for High Explosives Escape Fury

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The eighty-acre ammunition plant of the Canadian Car and Foundry company, near Kingsland, N. J., is a scarred and blackened ruin today, swept by flames and ploughed by bursting shells. The fire started there late yesterday afternoon still smoldered in spots; the firemen who stood helplessly at a safe distance last night watching the explosion of half a million three and six inch shells, closed in on the ruins cautiously.

There have been no official reports of loss of life, and it all of the 1400 employees of the plant escaped their safety is due probably to the fact that a short time intervened between the discovery of the fire and the moment when the flames reached the stored ammunition.

The loss estimated at more than $4,000,000 is accounted for almost entirely by the destruction of shells which the ship loads at this plant for the Russian government. The rectangular enclosure contained between forty and fifty buildings, but these were of flimsy construction, and it is said that the company intended to abandon them in a short time when it finished its present contract.

More than 1000 persons who fled from their homes surrounding the plant to escape the rain of projectiles were sheltered—and fed last night by the police and charity officials of neighboring towns. Some time may elapse before it is known whether any of the fugitives lost their lives in the Hackensack marshes through which many of them plunged in a blind rush for safety.

The flames did not reach the company's magazines in which were stored trinitrotoluol, nitric acid, picric acid and black powder, used in charging the shells. These magazines are situated in a remote quarter of the enclosure and carefully protected. Although the country immediately surrounding the plant was subjected all night to a terrific bombardment the damage was not as great as had been feared owing to the fact that the shells were not equipped with detonating fuses until they reached Russia. For this reason the projectiles came down like solid shots and did not explode.

Fire was first observed in a room where workmen were cleaning the brass cases of shells in denatured alcohol. It is believed that the flames first burst out from a tube of alcohol ignited by a piece of glowing insulation from an electric wire in the ceiling. The flames quickly spread to a car loaded with trinitrotoluol. After the first few minutes the employees realized that the fire could not be checked fled for their lives.

The heroine of the fire is a telephone switchboard operator whose position was in sight of the spot where the flames first appeared. The girl stuck to her post until she had sent a warning over the wire to the various buildings scattered throughout the plant. As she plugged in for the last call projectiles were descending through the roof of the building where she sat.

The police today issued a warning that thousands of the loaded shells had fallen within a radius of four miles of the fire. It is feared that many of the spectators picked these up as souvenirs and carried them home. Such persons were urged to handle them carefully for fear of explosions. The New York police were directed to search for shells which might have been brought to this city.

The hundreds of families who fled from Kingsland began their return to their homes this morning. They entered a desolate village. Many of the houses were so shell ridden that they were not tenable. The police authorities lifted the dead line they had thrown around the residence section in an effort to prevent looting and assisted the returning townsmen in putting their households in order. Some of the dwellings appeared ruined beyond repair. Many of those who ran for safety spent the night huddled uncomfortably in churches and schools.

The shops of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad in the vicinity of the munition plant were badly damaged. Shells rained into them, ruining machinery and equipment.

Reports of looting proved apparently unfounded. Twenty-eight men arrested within the police lines at Kingsland spent the night in jail. They were examined this morning and discharged. The authorities decided they were only dazed wanderers or persons who had been curious.

Denotations continued throughout the forenoon. Occasional three-inch shells exploded and frequently smaller ones and the police kept persons from entering the danger zone. Thousands of unexploded shells lay on the ground.

On the chance that employees of the plant would be curious.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO ENTENTE
EXCUSES INVASION OF BELGIUM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Berlin, Jan. 12.—Germany yesterday handed neutral governments a note concerning the reply of the entente to the German peace proposals, the Overseas News Agency announces.

It is first stated, says the news agency announcement, that the German government has received the reply of the entente to the note of Dec. 12, containing a proposition to enter at once into peace negotiations. The closing paragraphs are as follows and give Germany's position:

"Germany and her allies have made an honest attempt to terminate the war and open the road for an understanding among the belligerents. The imperial government asserts the fact that it merely depended upon the decision of our adversaries whether the road toward peace should be entered upon or not. The hostile governments declined to accept this road. Upon them falls the full responsibility for the continuation of the bloodshed."

"Our allied powers, however, shall continue the struggle in quiet confidence and with firm trust in their right, until peace is gained which guarantees to their nations honor, existence and liberty of development, and which to all the nations of the European continent gives the blessing to co-operate in mutual respect and under equal rights together for the solution of the great problems of civilization."

The note says in part:
"Our adversaries declined this proposition, giving as the reason that it is a proposition without sincerity and without importance. The form in which they close their communication excludes an answer to them, but the imperial government considers it is important to point out to the governments of the neutral powers its opinion regarding the situation."

"The central powers have no reason to enter into any discussion regarding the origin of the world war. History will judge upon whom the immense guilt of the war shall fall; history's verdict will as little pass over the encircling policy of England, the revengeful policy of France and the endeavor of Russia to gain Constantinople as over the instigation of the Serbian assassination in Sarajevo and the complete mobilization of Russia which meant war against Germany."

"Germany and her allies, who had to take up arms for defense of their liberty and their existence, consider this, their aim of the war, as obtained."

"On the other hand, the hostile powers always went further away from the realization of their plans, which, according to the declarations of their responsible statesmen, were, among others, directed toward the conquest of Alsace-Lorraine and the general Prussian provinces, the humiliation and diminution of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, the partition of Turkey and the mutilation of Bulgaria."

"In the face of such war aims, the demand for restitution, reparation and guarantees in the mouth of our adversaries produces a surprising effect."

"Our adversaries call the proposal of the four allied (Teutonic) powers a war maneuver. Germany and her allies must protest in the most energetic fashion against such a characterization of their motives, which were frankly explained. They were persuaded that a peace which was just and acceptable to all the belligerents was possible, that it could be brought about by an immediate, spoken exchange of views and that therefore the responsibility for further bloodshed could not be taken."

"Their readiness was affirmed without reservation to make known their peace conditions when negotiations were entered into, which refutes every doubt as to their sincerity."

"Our adversaries, who had it in their hands to examine the proposition as to its contents, neither attempted an examination nor made counter-proposals. Instead, they declined that peace was impossible so long as the re-establishment of violated rights and liberties, the recognition of the principle of nationalities and the free existence of small states were not guaranteed."

"The sincerity which our adversary denies to the proposals of the four allied powers will not be conceded by the world to these demands, if the world holds before its eyes the fate of the Irish people, the destruction of the liberty and independence of the Boer republic, the subjugation of northern Africa by England, France and Italy, the suppression of Russian alien nations, and also the violation of Greece, which is without precedent in history."

"Against the pretended violations of the laws of nations by the four allies (Teutonic), those powers are not entitled to complain, which from the beginning of the war trampled on justice and tore to pieces the treaties upon which it is built. England already during the first weeks of the war repudiated the London declaration, the content of which had been recognized by its own delegates as a valid law of nations, and in the further course of the war violated in the most severe fashion also the Paris declaration; so that, by her arbitrary measures for warfare, a condition of lawlessness has been created."

"The war of starvation against Germany and the pressure exercised in England's interest against neutrals are not less scandalously conflicting with the rules of the laws of nations as with the commands of humanity."

"Likewise, contrary to the laws of nations, and incompatible with the usages of civilization, are the use of colored troops in Europe and the extension of the war into Africa, which was done by a breach of existing treaties and which undermines the prestige of the white race on that continent."

situation of Belgium. The imperial government is unable to acknowledge that the Belgian government has always observed the duties which were enjoined upon her by her neutrality. Already before the war, Belgium, under England's influence, sought support in military fashion from England and France and thus herself violated the spirit (of the treaty) which she had to guarantee her independence and neutrality."

"Twice the imperial government declared to the Belgian government that it did not come as an enemy to Belgium, and asked it to spare to the country the horrors of war. Germany offered to guarantee the integrity and independence to the fullest extent and compensate for all damages which might be caused by the passage of the German troops. It is known that royal British government in 1887 was resolved not to oppose the use of the right of way through Belgium under those conditions."

"The Belgian government declined the repeated offer of the imperial government. Upon her and those powers which instigated her to this attitude falls the responsibility for the late which befell Belgium."

"The accusations about the German warfare in Belgium and the measures taken there in the interest of military safety have been repeatedly refuted by the imperial government as untrue. Germany again offers energetic protest against these calumnies."

Entered as Second Class Matter March 10, 1882 at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Demands of Servants.

The first domestic servants' union formed east of the Missouri river is reported from Duluth, Minn. It is presenting to employers a list of demands. These include a nine hour day, time and a half for overtime, one full day each week for recreation, also higher wages. One can imagine the groan that will arise from the employing housewives of Duluth.

Yet this is probably what the serving class of the future is going to require. The kitchen lady already has pretty much her own way. She may be incompetent, may know practically nothing about cooking, and may never sweep in dark corners. But even if so, the mistress puts up with her service because the old type of faithful, competent, contented service grows harder to find each year.

From the mistress' point of view, the girls are committing an act of folly in turning good pay plus costly board. She feels that the girl should be happy sweeping and tending stove from 6 a. m. to nearly bedtime. But servants are very human creatures, and have their own ideas, aims, and ambitions. The mistress must reckon with them.

Servants like other people have their own social interests that are the things that for them make life worth living. If the boys of their own set are turned loose at 6 p. m., the girls will demand their freedom about the same time. It may seem silly or positively dangerous to the dignified lady of the house. But it is the law of life, and the attention of sex and the desire for pleasure are elements that affect every form of industry and must be considered.

If housewives could adjust themselves to this demand and make their evening meal a less formal affair, they would keep their servants with far less difficulty. If they could clear away their own table while Bridget was turned loose with her friends, household service would be infinitely more popular than it is now.

Freight Car Shortage.

There have been many complaints this winter about the lack of freight cars. Manufacturers have been unable to get raw material, coal has been held up, and failure to get food shipments has led to high prices in many cases.

It seems too bad that business should be thus held up when a few years ago railroad equipment companies were running on half time. It is the fault of the American business temperament that it feels either like a prince or a pauper. When business is good it orders beyond its needs. When business is bad it can not believe that it will ever be better, and it will not anticipate the coming of better times.

The next time a period of depression comes, the business community should not be too down cast. Then is the time to build freight cars and fill other gaps in our commercial system. Equipment can be secured at much cheaper rates at such periods. Never yet has there been a depression that was not succeeded by good times.

There is a powerful demand for investigation of the stock market tips at Washington, as the public wants to know where it can get them.

More gold funds are reported in Alaska, and with the homing spirit the fortune hunters are prepared to sink two dollars to get one out.

The people who make a thorough study of newspaper advertising do not complain about the cost of living as much as some others.

Being urged to go in for healthful winter sports, many people sit down to three hours of bridge in a stuffy room.

The Webb-Kenyon Decision.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
In voting to sustain the constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law, which prohibits the shipment of liquor from wet to dry states, the federal supreme court reverses a former President of the United States.

Daily History Class—Jan. 13.

1689—Montesquieu, Charles de Secondat, Baron de, celebrated French traveler and author, who wrote the "Spirit of Laws," born died 1755.
1891—Civil war in Chile assumed an active form. Balmaceda drove the Congressmen out of the capital, and the navy blockaded several ports.
1916—Montenegro asked Austria for peace. Gertie captured by Austrians.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

North of east the Sicke, in constellation Leo, is conspicuous, low down, about 8 p. m.

THE NEWARK ADVOCATE

There is scarcely a single joy or sorrow, within the experience of our fellow-creatures, which we have not tasted; yet the belief in the good and beautiful has never forsaken us. It has been medicine in sickness, richness in poverty, and the best part of all that ever delighted us in health and success.—Leigh Hunt.

Peace, Again.
Some day war will cease,
And we shall have peace,
And what will Will Irwin and Irwin Cobb, and Arthur S. Draper, and Oswald Sublette, and James O'Donnell Bennett, and all the rest of those poor war correspondents
Do then, poor things?
—Cleveland Leader.

My, Look at This!
There was a quite cultivated young fellow.
There wasn't a thing but he knioux!
He tried aviation.
And caused a sensation.
When his neighbors all saw how he floux!
—New York Evening Sun.

Did You Know.
That the movement for the enfranchisement of women began in the United States in 1848 and in England in 1851? The agitation quickly attained the dimensions of a political movement. Its history is one of conventions, legislative hearings, and petitions to Congress. The first convention was called at Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1848, by Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Martha C. Wright and Mary Ann McClintock.

Melting Pot's Birthday.
The Melting Pot will be one year old next Wednesday. To celebrate the occasion we invite contributions and shall award four cash prizes. Send what your fancy directs. Mark it "For the Birthday" and address Editor Melting Pot, Advocate.

Last Week's Winner.
Editor Advocate Melting Pot:
I received your check for one dollar Monday and I thank you for the same. I am very glad that my limerick was considered the best. Very sincerely,
Elizabeth East.

Pointed Paragraphs
A man is ashamed of good actions only when he is where he should be ashamed to be.—Youth's Companion.

Presumably the bid of an English firm to supply shells to our navy is the beginning of that threatened trade war.—Washington Post.

Now that George W. Perkins is going to give a big dinner in the interest of cheaper food costs, we can see a glimmer of hope that the problem is at length to be solved. Every great movement begins with a dinner these days.—New York World.

Nobody ever accused Congress of leaking, but it frequently sops over.—Providence Journal.

The Kaiser's address to his army was eloquence itself. If Wilhelm ever loses his present job, he will no doubt be grabbed the G. O. P. to make tariff speeches.—Rochester Herald.

Chicago is going to try reducing expenses in order to dispose of a $4,000,000 deficit. How old-fashioned! Why not double the appropriations and increase the taxes? —Houston Post.

You may be sure that where sin, punishment is just around the corner.—Ohio Penitentiary News.

If General Pershing's troops are withdrawn from Mexico and Villa hops in and pulls the hide off Carranza, we are going to giggle, no matter what happens.—Macon Telegraph.

Thirsty Representatives will please understand their mileage allowance will not cover trips to Baltimore.—Pittsburgh-Gazette-Times.

Miss Jeannette Rankin's campaign expenses were $687; and there are women who think that much money not spent on clothes a rank waste.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Nothing makes a woman with a real pearl necklace madder than to have the imitations go good.—Ohio State Journal.

Spirit of the Press
Their Mutual Friend.
In case Germany says she will not lay her cards on the table unless the Allies do the same, why should not President Wilson gently whisper in each belligerent's ear that he is ready to act as their mutual confidant? If they will disclose their peace terms to him, he can then compare them and advise each party whether the terms should be exchanged, or whether there are so far apart that there would be no use in negotiations until more concessions are made.—New York Independent and Harper's Weekly.

Oleomargarine.
How easily people are misled! Because the price of butter is high, the manufacturers of oleomargarine are clamoring to have the tax removed from their product. What they fail to disclose is that the tax on oleomargarine is not colored to imitate butter, it is white. It is only on the product that is made to look as much as possible like real butter that the tax is levied, and it was made high for the sole purpose of protecting the consumer from fraud. It is just as well to know both sides.—Youth's Companion.

The "Leak."
Marse Henry Watterson waxes wrathful over the "leak" inquiry. "How villainous it is," he snorts, "that any demagogue should be allowed to Congress."

may utter and embellish any sort of libel and be absolutely immune from consequences, civil, criminal, or physical." But Marse Henry should be compassionate, since he is the only editor we know who can say that a brother editor "lied like a dog" and get away with it. Such immunity should excite pity, not scorn.—Hartford Times.

World's View of It.
A law enabling the Minister from Costa Rica to serve wine at dinner but denying that privilege to the President of the United States can be regarded only as an expression of bigotry reinforced by stupidity. When may we expect an act of Congress regulating the diet and the cut and color of the clothing of people in the District.—New York World.

The Time for Action.
Those Congressmen who want to prohibit election betting should act now while they have the support of the people who are sore over losing.—Philadelphia North American.

Germany's Commercial Efficiency.
That Germany has established what is practically a separate Government for the exclusive purpose of paving the way for a new trade war is declared by F. W. Wile, a former Berlin correspondent now in London. The prospect is comparatively pleasant. There is at least, no "irrefragable" in Germany's commercial efficiency, except to the trader who gets left.—Springfield Republican.

G. O. P. and Republicans.
The meeting of the Republicans National Committee next Monday is for the purpose of considering how a complete coalition of Old-Guard Republicans and Progressives can be effected. Possibly the Old Guard will consent to take the offices if the Progressives will produce the votes.—New York World.

The P. A. C. club composed of young women from the high school, recently organized under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Edmiston, met with Miss Marian Whiteman, at her home, 59 West Church street, yesterday afternoon. After the business of the club was transacted the time was spent socially and dainty refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion.

The following were present: Marie Dodd, Alleen Martin, Mary Brownfield, Geneva Frye, Gwendolyn Davies, Virginia Miller, Freda Butler, Margaret Hawkins, Frances Foote, Frances Carlisle, Elizabeth East, Creta Root, Dorothy Dewey and Marian Whiteman. Misses Edith Clark and Fannie Whiteman were guests.

Mr. George Glassmier was pleasantly surprised at his home, 490 West Main street last Saturday evening by a party of friends, honoring his birthday anniversary. During the evening Mr. Glassmier was presented with a beautiful rocking chair and a pair of slippers. The rest of the evening was delightfully spent in playing progressive euchre. The lucky participants in the game were Mr. Baker, Mrs. Phil Koblenz, Sr., and Mr. C. Gibb.

A dainty luncheon was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. C. Koblenz and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Weigant and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Freednour and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Koblenz, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. P. Faetack and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Lasquertz and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schumuster and son Alton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Koblenz, Jr., Mr. W. Glassmier and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Koblenz and son, Mr. and Mrs. C. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freednour and daughters, Mr. J. Glassmier and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Nell.

A pretty afternoon party was given by Mrs. Henry D. Woodbridge at her home in South First street on Thursday. About thirty guests enjoyed Mrs. Woodbridge's hospitality and the hours were devoted to sewing. A luncheon of delightful appointments was served.

The Thursday Afternoon Sewing club was entertained on the club day at the home of Mrs. Carl Weigant east of the city. Mrs. Fulton Van Voorhis and Miss Dorothy Edmiston were guests of the club.

The first dancing party of the season to be given by the Knights of Columbus proved to be one of the most enjoyable events ever given by Newark citizens, when the entertainment on Thursday evening at Assembly hall with a dinner dance. During the evening a most delightful program was given by the orchestra and the pleasure was enhanced when the dancers were bombarded with cotton snowballs and the merriment increased as confetti enveloped the room and balloons of all colors floated among the dancers. At 11:30 o'clock a delicious dinner of three courses was served in the balcony to the following: Messrs and Mesdames, J. A. Deardour, A. E. Willert, Harry A. Bournier, Oliver Poulton, R. E. McGonagle, Roman Adam, John Dolan, Frank L. Corbin-Ehman.
The marriage of Miss Lola Ehman and Mr. Stephen Corbin took place at the manse of the Second Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. Don Tullis, the service was read by Rev. L. C. Sparks. After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their friends in Newark.

The F. W. Recreation club held the regular monthly meeting on Wednesday of last week with Mrs. G. B. Young of Union Station as hostess. The afternoon was spent in piecing a quilt to be used for charitable purposes. A delightful lunch was served and the club meets next Wednesday with Mrs. J. S. Young.

"There is only one thing worse than marriage without love," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "and that is divorce without alimony."

Sore Throat Don'ts.

When the children have sore throat, don't blister their necks with lamp oil. Don't torture them with a foul smelling piece of fat meat, wrapped about the neck. Don't imagine there is medical virtue in an old sock or piece of red flannel. Don't believe in antiquated superstitions.

A sore throat is a serious matter and is not to be healed by such make-believe remedies. The use of such methods is simply putting the patient to needless torture. Use a little sore throat wisdom and give them TONSILINE and the throat will heal quick! 25 cents and 50 cents. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

PIKE'S PEAK ROAD BOOSTERS MEET AT FRAZEYSBURG.

Attorney A. A. Stasel and B. F. McDonald were at Frazeysburg last evening attending a meeting of Pike's Peak highway boosters, which was held in the convention room of the public school building. The room was crowded and a great deal of interest was manifested, and an effort was launched to change the route of the highway through Muskingum county to Coshocton, so that it would parallel the canal. The citizens of Muskingum county along the route established by the Pike's Peak highway commission are enthusiastic and have promised to do everything in their power to promote the same.

Music

Word has been received that Mr. Ralph Warren Shule the tenor who was to have sung at the high school this evening at the recital to be given under the auspices of the Newark Women's Music club, has a bad cold and will not be able to appear.

Karl Eschman will render piano numbers in place of those assigned to Mr. Soule.

The recital begins at 8:15 o'clock promptly.

Our Boys and Girls

Some babies seem to catch cold on the slightest provocation. This is often due to the fact that they have been kept in too warm a room or have been clothed too warmly. They may have gotten overheated and then have felt the slightest draught of air.

At night keep the baby's room at a temperature of 60 to 65 degrees and in the daytime at a temperature of 68 to 70 degrees. Have the thermometer hung about the level of the baby's head when he is in his crib. When baby has a cold and his nose stopped up, twist a piece of cotton about a wooden toothpick and insert a little way up the nostrils. Be careful not to push it up too far.

Too often is serious skin trouble traced to an infected tub, the wash cloth that is not entirely clean and diapers that are not properly laundered. The tub should be carefully scrubbed and used for baby alone. Do not put soiled diapers in it to soak. Keep it pure for his bath.

The washclothes of surgeons lint should be boiled and his towels used only once between boilings. The soiled diapers can be kept in a bucket, half filled with water and closely covered. They should be washed each day in warm water with a good soap. Frequently boil them and dry in the sun whenever possible.

Baby's woolen garments, washed by the following method, will retain the softness of the new article. Lukewarm soapy water should be used. Squeeze them, but never rub them or rub soap on them. Rinse in lukewarm soapy water and be sure that a good pure soap is used. The shirts, bands and stockings should be dried on stretchers which come for this purpose. They are inexpensive and keep the articles in shape. It is better to dry them in the sun. The flannel skirt, too, should be washed in like manner.

The Sick

Every Day Etiquette

"Will you please tell me the proper manner in which to eat a sandwich at a luncheon?" asked Jennie.

"The most delicate way is to use the knife and fork. It is perfectly proper, however, to cut the sandwich in small pieces, and eat these pieces from the fingers," answered her mother.

"Will you tell me if it is proper to enclose a stamp when writing to a person for information, who is merely an acquaintance?" inquired Margaret.

"You should most certainly enclose a stamp under such circumstances," answered her father.

"When meeting an acquaintance who has had great grief, how should I extend my sympathy?" inquired Maude.

"It is sufficient to say: 'Let me offer my sincere sympathy, Miss So-and-So.' The person to whom your sympathy is extended will reply by a 'Thank you,' answered her aunt.

CARE OF AUTO.

If an automobile is used only occasionally during winter, the wheels should be supported by jacks and the tires should be partially deflated.

The tires should be kept from grease and moisture as grease is injurious to the rubber and moisture to the fabric.

If the car is laid up for the winter, the tires should be removed. Cuts in the rubber should be repaired in order that moisture may not enter the fabric. The tires should be wrapped in paper or burlap to keep them as dry as possible and to protect them from sunlight. They should be placed in a dry room with the temperature ranging between 40 and 65 degrees.

Inner tubes should be removed and be either deflated or rolled loosely with a slight air pressure left in them. The tubes should then be given the same care as the tires.

LAWYERS TO BE EXPLAINED.

Three men of prominence who are intimately connected with three matters of recent legislation will be on the program of Farmers' Week February 2. The laws and the men are: federal farm loan act, Herbert Quick, member of the federal farm loan board; federal grain standards act, E. C. Eikenberry, president Grain Dealers' National Association; laws regular production of sanitary cream, Carl Aisberg, chief of the bureau of chemistry, U. S. Department of Agriculture. These men will explain the three acts, how they operate and what use may be made of them.

Diet for Your Skin.

Despairing maidens with sallow, muddy, pimply skins will find a speedy cure in diet of fresh rare beef, coarse grains small quantity and oranges in abundance. Eat all the oranges you want, take one whenever you are hungry. This is a good thing of which there cannot be too much.

As a local application to the skin, oranges prepared in various fashions have no superior. Orange flower skin food for which I have many times given the formula, is one of the best cold creams for your toilet table, and an orange flower astringent, is an afterthought to the cream, or even used by itself, the dainty woman will find most delightful. It will freshen and tone up the skin wonderfully, if used constantly, granting it a many pear reprieve from wrinkles, and giving it the velvety softness of the orange flower petals themselves. Its main mission is to—close up enlarged pores. It should be dabbed upon the skin by a bit of absorbent cotton which has been moistened with the liquid.

A close cousin to the orange flower astringent is orange flower vinegar, which should be sprayed over the body after the bath to stimulate the skin and make it fresh and glowing.

No woman should ever be without a toilet vinegar on her toilet table. But the orange does not confine its ministrations wholly to the skin. It possesses equal virtues as far as the hair is concerned. Oil of orange rind massaged into the scalp daily will keep the hair glossy and full of life and color.

The Beautiful Neck.

Every time you give any attention to your face, remember that your neck needs the same care, and it can easily be given at the same time. Before going to bed at night wash both face and neck in warm, soapy water. Rub the neck particularly well with the complexion brush. Then in softening with cold cream, and removing dirt which the soap and water did not touch, massage the neck as well as the face. Allow the fingers to rest on the ears, the hands extending below the chin, then massage with the thumbs, pushing the flesh back under the curves of the chin. This will help to prevent the appearance of folds and creases in a "double" chin.

A yellow throat or one covered with white patches may be easily made white by the following process: First, thoroughly clean the neck with soap and water. In doing this, don't neglect to scrub beneath the chin and over the shoulders in back. Then apply this bleach: Strained honey, one ounce, lemon juice, one teaspoonful, oil of bitter almonds six drops, whites of two eggs and enough fine oatmeal to make a paste. After mixing these ingredients spread the paste rather thickly on a piece of muslin and tie it about the throat. In the morning remove the pack and wash the neck thoroughly, rinsing first in warm water, then in tepid water, to which the juice of two lemons has been added. Try this treatment once a week for three or four weeks in succession and you will find that your neck will become soft and white.

It is a good idea to always keep a cut lemon on your dressing table. It will lighten any brownish marks on the neck, and is useful as a finger nail bleach.

COAL CONTRACTOR KICKS WHEN BUYER SELLS TO EMPLOYEES

A great injustice has been done to the Jewett Coal company through a complaint filed with the coal company which supplies the Jewett plant with fuel. The facts in the case as stated at the car company's offices this morning are as follows: For some time the price of coal has been advancing, until the price asked by the regular dealers was such that the man earning wages, even high wages, could afford to buy it with difficulty. At this juncture the Jewett company came to the relief of its employees, and sold them coal at the price it cost the company. This coal was taken from a reserve heap, which had been on hand at the plant for a long time, and contained approximately 100 tons.

This generous action was commented upon in the Advocate, and received widespread commendation. Some one mailed to the Akron headquarters of the company operating the Klondike mine in the Cambridge district, a copy of the notice in the Advocate, with the misleading insinuation that the Jewett company was selling coal promiscuously, and in fact advertising the fact to get more customers. Nothing could have been farther from the true intent of the company. The coal sold was from a reserve heap, and not that delivered for the company's use under a contract, and it was sold only to employees.

But the Jewett company received word from Akron that if the practice of selling coal was continued, the coal company would discontinue delivery.

Today the reserve supply has been used, and the car works had only enough on hand to keep up steam, to keep things from freezing so that the plant closed down this morning temporarily, until several cars that probably were in Newark could be put upon the siding and unloaded.

The car company's officials feel that their position was misrepresented to the Akron people, which resulted in the threat to cut off their coal supply, which at this time would be a serious blow as the company is very busy and will use in ordinary weather a couple of cars a week. They believe however that the matter will be explained and satisfactorily adjusted so that there will be no extended suspension of activities.

ELEVEN INDICTED FOR MURDER OF POULTRY DEALER

Associated Press Telegram

New York, Jan. 12.—The indictment of 11 men, some of them as instigators of others as participants in the murder of Barnett Baff, the poultry dealer shot to death more than two years ago, was promised today by District Attorney Swann as the result of a confession which he said had been made by Antonio Cardinale, brought back recently from Italy where he had fled. The district attorney said that Cardinale had confessed planning the murder with Ippolito Greco and that they had received $4,800 to procure the men who actually committed the crime. Greco was himself subsequently murdered.

Business rivalry has been alleged as the motive for the doing away of Baff.

INDIANA SOLONS GET STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION BILL

Associated Press Telegram

Indianapolis, January 12.—The state-wide prohibition bill, approved by the dry federation of Indiana, was introduced in both branches of the state legislature here today. A bill for woman's suffrage, sanctioned by the woman's suffrage organizations of the state, was introduced in the house as was also a measure providing for a state highway commission which is said to meet the conditions imposed by the federal government in giving aid for state roads.

AUTO CLUB DENIED PRIVILEGE OF AIDING LICENSE DISTRIBUTION

Columbus, Jan. 12.—Secretary of State Fulton has put a ban on the Cleveland Automobile Club as a distributor of automobile license tags. A Cleveland branch of the state automobile registration department, independent of the automobile club is to be opened in a few days.

This action was taken by Fulton following numerous complaints that club officials discriminated against non-members.

Fulton has not decided whether he will take the privilege away from all automobile clubs.

JACKSONTOWN

Protracted meetings are being held in the M. E. church. A number of Fairmount people were in attendance at the service Sunday evening.

There was no preaching in the U. R. church last Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Larson, being on another part of his work in special meeting.

This community is pleased to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Sallie Prior, formerly of this place, now living in Virginia.

There will be a re-opening of the White Chapel M. E. church on Sunday, January 21 at 10:30 a. m. Sermon by the Rev. Franklin McElfresh D. D. Further announcement of the reopening will be made later.

Walter Orr left Monday for Ohio University after spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Orr of this village.

Miss Jane Gray is on the sick list. Material is being placed on the ground for the new high school building. The officers of the Grange will be installed Friday evening, January 19.

Rev. T. T. Howell was in Dresden early last week attending the ministerial association of the Zanesville district.

AUDITORIUM.
"Honor Thy Name."
No less thrilling a scene than that in which a team of runaway horses, drawing a carriage with two occupants, dash madly over a precipice and roll a sheer hundred feet to the rocks below, forms the sensational climax to "Honor Thy Name," the Triangle play by J. G. Hawks, in which Frank Keenan and Charles Ray are presented as co-stars by Thomas H. Ince. The sight is so realistically spectacular that it evoked gasps even from the calloused cutters of the film men who almost daily view accidents on the screen when they saw it in the projecting room at the Ince plant.

This feature together with the Keystone comedy, "The Feathered Nest," with Chas. Murray and his Keystone comedians, also the 11th episode of "The Crimson Stain Mystery" will be the Auditorium feature today.

"The Girl Without a Chance."
When a contractor starts to build a great building, he goes down into the fifth and sixth floors for the foundation, but the building stands just as firmly, when finished, as though it were built on white stone. That's what Whitney Collins did when he wrote "The Girl Without a Chance," which will be seen at the Auditorium theater, matinee and night, starting Saturday, January 13. He went into the slums of a great city. He brought forth characters that were reeking with crime, but they were human. He brought scenes that will cause a lump to rise in your throat, but they are true. He brought forth a wonderful character in the irrepressible "Jerry Sullivan," but he too is a picture from life and one that will make the world better for his having been in it. The metropolitan papers unite in calling this the most delightful plays of the year and Manager Fenberg was very fortunate to secure it. No children under 16 admitted.

"The Love Thief."
The Sunday program at the Auditorium will be the massive scenic melo dramatic sensation, "The Love Thief," with Alan Hale and Cretchen Hartman. This feature is one that will thrill from start to finish. As an extra feature the Krazy Kats series of comedy cartoons will be shown.

"Hello, Paris."
"Hello, Paris," coming to the Auditorium theater for next Monday.

SCENE FROM THOS. H. INCE'S CIVILIZATION

At the Auditorium Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 16th and 17th

matinee and evening, strikes the dominant chord of burlesque with its "Frenchie-Girlie" theme. The show was built to bring out the spick of Gay Paris with its myriads of beauties, who make life care-free, and it has exceeded all expectations. Without doubt, "Hello, Paris" has the most beautiful chorus on the stage today and the idea of the show is to exploit this beauty along with an entertainment brimful of contagious melody and genuine farce.

Miss Eleanor Wilson, the "Smile-Girl," who personifies beauty and charm, and George A. Clark, the irresistible comedian, stand at the head of the cast. Several comedy specialties are introduced during the action of the comedy. Mr. Clark himself being an accomplished musician and he is heard on numerous occasions.

which Marguerite Clark is being started by that company. There were witches, dwarfs, weird cabins—and all the mysterious paraphernalia which go to the making of a fairy tale for the screen. Little Marguerite Clark, who also starred in the stage presentation of the play, was delighted by the prospect of starring in the motion picture adaptation as it gave so much more opportunity for displaying the magic charm of the story as it was conceived by the brothers Grimm. Alhambra tonight and tomorrow.

Sunday.
Miss Kate proves the good penmanship of the tunnel. She keeps the Tunneling boarding house in which Harry, Leland has pulled the badger out by means of Lake and Doris.

On W. A. Kate has been a disappointed woman, but now she is determined to be on the level. She has pulled Doris and is shocked at her behavior.

Miss Kate, with police headquarters, Kate sees the arrest of the Tunneling boys and Doris from the top of the tunnel. All the characters, even the Tunneling boys, are well drawn out in this sensational World feature, "The Tunneling Boys."

Miss Kate, young is the head of an unusual sporting cast in this play, which is coming to the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow.

GRAND SUNDAY.
"Pearl of the Army" marks the first appearance of Peter's part-time partner, the "Whispering Girl," who has been a part of the "The Tunneling Boys" cast. Captain R. D. D. is a character who is a member of the "The Tunneling Boys" cast. The Tunneling Boys are a group of characters who are well drawn out in this sensational World feature, "The Tunneling Boys."

"Civilization."
The Sunday program at the Auditorium will be the massive scenic melo dramatic sensation, "The Love Thief," with Alan Hale and Cretchen Hartman. This feature is one that will thrill from start to finish. As an extra feature the Krazy Kats series of comedy cartoons will be shown.

"Hello, Paris," coming to the Auditorium theater for next Monday.

TO MY:--- FRIENDS & PATRONS

Wednesday evening at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus, I witnessed Thos. H. Ince's Mammoth Cinema Spectacle, "CIVILIZATION," which comes to the Auditorium direct from that city, playing a TWO-DAY ENGAGEMENT HERE, starting Tuesday, Jan. 16th.

Outside of "The Birth of a Nation," I consider "CIVILIZATION" one of the greatest motion picture plays ever produced, and I want everybody in Newark to try and see it during the showings here. Do not let the price stand in the way, for although the top price is $1.00 (as our contract says there must be Dollar Seats), you will find I have placed the prices within reach of all.

The story is beautiful, the settings wonderful and elaborate. Forty thousand actors and 6000 horses were used in the production, another big feature being the introduction of CHRIST, which is handled in a way so that no one is offended. Without the idealistic personification of the Saviour, as the dominating feature in this production, much of the strength would be lost.

MY WISH TO ALL IS—SEE IT—SEE

"CIVILIZATION"

SEE

Sinking an ocean liner, the deed that staggered humanity.
Panic-stricken crowds on the sinking liner.
Awful fate of a submarine crew: doomed and drowning.
Death struggle in the sinking submarine.
War's Grim Carnage, pictured with thrilling realism.
Battlefields swept with a hurricane of steel.
The Saviour on the battlefields of Europe.
Mothers of men beseeching the Mighty Monarch to end the war.
Tranquil peace scenes after the war.

"CIVILIZATION" doesn't suggest; IT DOES. It boldly and thrillingly sets forth in actual pictures the processes of a wonderful imagination.

YOU CAN RELY ON MY WORD THAT "CIVILIZATION" IS A MOST WONDERFUL PICTURE, which, together with an Augmented Orchestra and Soloist, will be one of the events of the season, and the MAN, WOMAN or CHILD WHO UNMOVED CAN SIT THROUGH THIS INCE MASTERPIECE NEEDS A SUDDEN DOCTOR—A SLOW ONE WILL BE TOO LATE.

I am proud and happy to be able to offer "CIVILIZATION" to my patrons.

GEORGE M. FENBERG,
Manager Auditorium Theatre.

In "Hello Paris" Auditorium Monday

Lifeless hand a message found addressed to Elaine thanking him for services rendered to Grenada. When Elaine is searched, the left shoulder strap reveals nothing but a worthless piece of paper. In a dash, he hears the order given to arrest him on a charge of treason. What will happen next? It is a tense, attention-compelling chapter in which the amazing mystery of the Silent Menace is immediately brought before the audience. Miss White is supported by an all-star cast, including Ralph Kellard, Theodore Friebus, Marie Wayne and W. T. Carlton.

It isn't enough to bottle your wrath; you ought to throw away the corkscrow.

HARMONY

The people of Harmony received a treat Sunday at the church by the music furnished by Mr. Harper and his mother. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hall at dinner.

Miss Emma McClain of Granville is teaching the school here until Mr. Harmon Runnels will be able to resume his duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jannings returned to their home near Gambier Tuesday after spending several weeks with relatives in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Rosa Myers of Johnstown visited Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Ida Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Blamer.

About a dozen of the young people in the neighborhood surprised Miss Thelma Overturf last Friday night and spent a pleasant evening.

Mr. T. E. McWilliams is slightly improved at this writing.

Mr. Paul Parsons was a dinner guest of Mr. Forest Hall, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Denty entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shipley and son James. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Liggett and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hand and son Hilleary, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Runnels and son Byra.

Miss Lettie Crouse is teaching this week in the Sinkin school.

Miss Clarabel Runnels spent from Saturday until Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. Ambert Peters of Bangs Station.

Miss Thelma Overturf and Russel White returned to their school duties at Denison university, Granville, after spending the holidays at their homes.

It is possible for a fellow to be so shiftless that he couldn't get a job in a theatre as a scene shifter.

MOTHER OF NINE CHILDREN

Able to do Housework by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Springfield, Mass.—"After the birth of my ninth baby I was in a weak, run down condition, had pains in my left side, so I would faint often. My doctor advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and gained in strength so I can now do all my own house work and I hope you may publish my experience with your Compound for the benefit of other mothers."—MADAME EUGENE BEDARD, 558 Main Street, Springfield, Mass.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

TAKE RHEUMATISM RIGHT OUT OF JOINTS
Indiana Physician Claims That Rheumatism Can Now Be Successfully Treated

Dr. S. Whitehall, of South Bend, Indiana, has succeeded in perfecting a formula for rheumatism which is said to be a remarkable remedy for this terrible nerve-racking affliction.

Dr. Whitehall's claim that rheumatism is merely a symptom of a condition is endorsed by progressive physicians. He also has proven that exposure to drafts of air, sudden chill, damp, changing weather and faulty diet are among the chief causes of the agonizing, shooting pains in the muscles of the legs, back and joints, crick in back, stiff neck, painful swellings, gout, lumbago and similar conditions, and in his practice, covering many years, Dr. Whitehall has treated thousands of rheumatic cases of all degrees with astonishing results.

Dr. Whitehall's Rheumatic Remedy can be had at any drug store for only 50c a package and a very few doses will prove its undoubted merit to every man or woman having rheumatism.

The action of this great remedy is wonderful. It goes straight to the seat of trouble and dissolves uric acid and other poisons which are then eliminated through the regular channels. Every sufferer, whether the pains are slight or severe, should begin taking this treatment as quickly as possible.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain multifid coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

BAZAAR

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR RELIEF IN COUNTRIES OF ENTENTE ALLIES OPENS.

Varied Array of Articles Offered for Sale Ranged from $10,000 Necklace to Souvenirs.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—The Allied Bazaar, said to be the greatest society charitable event ever held in the middle west, designed to provide relief funds to war sufferers of the entente allies, opened last night at the Coliseum, the building which has been the scene of several national political conventions.

Chicago social and philanthropic leaders made the initial preparations, but the aid of organizations of every city in the middle west was early enlisted, and the immense array of things on sale from a $10,000 pearl necklace and blooded horses, to rough crucifixes carved in the trenches.

In all 8,000 persons were engaged in promoting the bazaar. For the most part the routing society events of the winter were abandoned or curtailed to center every energy on the "Million dollar show," at the Coliseum.

Two thousand women comprise the selling force. It is said that an idea of the immensity of the preparations may be gained from the statement of Mrs. Haison Hankey, associated with Mrs. Ralph Greenlee in the confectionary department, that the forty girls in this section expect to dispose of three tons of candies before the close of the bazaar on Jan. 20.

All of the sales women were in appropriate costumes from the fur-trimmed gowns of the Russians and the sport suits of the Canadians. The section was a point of interest. The cabaret performers, rotating from day to day, include the foremost actors and actresses now in Chicago, and some coming here from New York for the single purpose of contributing to the success of the enterprise.

Among the donations were many antique jewels, original etchings by Whistler; "La Dormit del Fiere," a painting by Caffi, a 17th century woman artist; two paintings of the 16th century, a bronze reproduction of "La Vittoria di Pompei," contributed by the Italian minister of marine; five automobiles, a duplicate of the piano in the White House, a $2,500 diamond necklace, an emerald and diamond bracelet, valued at $3,500; prize winning dogs and cats, Alaska seal coats and other garments of precious furs, $5,000 worth of French toys, dolls from Al-face-Lorraine, artistic brasses from Russia, and a thousand other things.

The Russian section was saved only by the eleventh hour response of persons with appropriate articles to contribute, for a shipment from St. Petersburg was delayed when the steamer Krusk, carrying the consignment struck a mine. The passengers were landed at a British port, but the fate of the cargo is unknown here.

A reproduction of the famous British "tank" also is on exhibition as are parts of the wreckage of battle planes, all sorts of new implements of war, gas masks and uniforms, one both surgeons showed how the medical experts of the armies make new noses, lips and ears for the wounded by skillful use of the knife.

The automobile and more expensive articles are being disposed of by a special system which originated in the bazaar held at Boston. The Boston bazaar netted $400,000 and that at New York $701,000. The Chicago figures, it is expected will run somewhere between these.

FOREST NOTES.

On about two million acres of national forest lands grazing by domestic stock is either entirely prohibited or is greatly restricted to provide range for elk.

It is estimated that in 1915 about 40,000 forest fires occurred in the United States, which burned over 5,900,000 acres and caused a damage of approximately $7,000,000.

Revised estimates place the amount of standing merchantable timber in the United States at approximately 2,767 billion board feet. Of this amount 1,464 billion board feet, or 53 per cent of the total, is in California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.

During the past fiscal year there were constructed on the National Forests 227 miles of new road, 1,975 miles of trails, 2,124 miles of telephone line, 89 miles of fire lines, 81 lookout structures, 40 bridges, 222 miles of fence, 545 dwellings, barns and other structures, 17 cars, and 202 water improvements.

Since the passage in 1912 of the act providing funds for land classification, and as a direct result of the classification work, a total of 13,477,781 acres has been eliminated from the National Forests. This includes an elimination of approximately 5,300,000 acres of land from the Chugach National Forest in Alaska which embraced lands of low value for any purpose other than mining.

Nell—"Miss Antique carries her age remarkably well." Belle—"Oh, it's easy enough to carry your age by dropping a few birthdays now and then."

HINTS FOR PROGRESSIVE FARMERS

Spring Fertilizers for the Wheat Crop.

For wheatfields not fertilized last fall nor manured during the winter, the Ohio Experiment Station recommends for application in early spring, on nearly all soils that have been under long cultivation, from 200 to 300 pounds of acid phosphate to the acre. Nitrate of soda has paid for itself in some experimental field tests, but the present cost of potassium prohibits its use this year.

In the barn, but whenever the weather is at all favorable, the ewes should be out of doors for exercise.

One should not allow the fleeces of the sheep to get soaking wet in the winter time. The sunshine is not warm enough during this season of the year to dry them out again. Sheep with wet coats are likely to contract colds or pneumonia.

GINGEROLE Is the Greatest Known Remedy for Rheumatism, Colds in Chest, Lumbago, Tonsillitis, Sore Throat, Neuralgia
Stops Headache, Backache, Relieves Stiff Joints Instantly

It's really marvelous how quickly GINGEROLE banishes all aches, pains and soreness.

GINGEROLE is better than any liniment—hot water bag—poultice or ointment. Just rub it on, that's all. It is very penetrating and won't blister.

A package that will do the work of 50 blistering mustard plasters costs but 25 cents at all druggists. Get a package today. Use it to speedily banish sore throat, cold in chest, tonsillitis, pleurisy, lumbago. It's a grand sensible remedy that all who use it will praise, and money back if you don't say its results are astonishing.

Ask for GINGEROLE. Nothing so good for swollen, aching, rheumatic joints, neuritis, sore muscles, sprains, stiff neck, bruises. It draws out the burning inflammation from sore feet, bunions, corns and callouses over night.

GINGEROLE is for sale and recommended by all druggists.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Banish Kidney Disease. Drive Away Backache, Stiff Joints, Puffiness, Dizziness, Spots Before Your Eyes.

If You Have Any Symptoms of Kidney Trouble, Get a Box Today—But Be Sure the Words "Dodd's Kidney Pills" Are on the Cover.

So fatal are the ravages of kidney disease, that insurance companies look upon it with grave concern. Some companies even go so far as to publish monthly publications to educate their policy holders about kidney troubles and how to prevent or check them. The whole fault rests in the people disregarding their first warnings.

With the slightest backache, throbbing pain through the loins, stiffness in stooping or lifting; immediately start toning the kidneys. Take heed of these danger signals, as well as spots appearing before or puffiness under the eyes, pain in back of neck, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, swollen feet or ankles, bed-wetting, nightly arising. Step into your nearest drug store, obtain Dodd's Kidney Pills and begin taking them at once.

For years thousands have testified to "DODD'S" as a kidney and bladder tonic and retractor. Be sure to get DODD'S the name with the three D's for diseased, disordered, deranged kidneys. Accept no similar named article. Money back if not satisfied.

20 Minutes Not Long Enough for Dr. Roller to Pin Down Newark Champion's Shoulders

Dr. B. F. Roller of New York, 215 pounds of physician-wrestler-athlete, failed to carry out his part of the agreement in last night's wrestling program at the Auditorium. He did not throw five wrestlers, including Paul Bowser, in one hour. He went four-fifths of the distance however, but stumbled on the last lap and found Bowser a tough nut—one which defied cracking—at least in the brief twenty minutes left when the Newark favorite went to the mat.

While some of the Newark fans held to the belief that the physician athlete did not extend himself, there were others in the big crowd present who believed that he worked hard, especially in the last ten minutes of the fray. Of course Bowser's efforts were mostly defensive, his cue being to stay as long as possible, but there were times when he carried the fight straight to the doctor and made him watch his kniting to prevent embarrassment.

While the match was marked by no unseemly roughness, it waxed warm several times and the crowd was kept to a high pitch of excitement. Charles Metro, Ed. Conley and Paul Bowser furnished plenty of entertainment for the fans, even if the two amateurs Young, McMerkle and John Heckelberry did not stay with the heavyweight longer than two minutes.

McMerkle was the first man to meet Dr. Roller. He is a well built athlete of 155 pounds. By some clever defensive work, he managed to stay a minute and a half. Heckelberry, though the heaviest of the five men, was not so fortunate. He was disposed of in just a half minute.

Charles Metro, fresh (?) from a Detroit match where on Wednesday night he won a match after nearly two hours' work, probably gave the crowd the most entertainment of the five. He was hardly shoulder high to the doctor but what there was of him was all alive. He was a combination of real live rubber, a slippery eel and an agile cat. His agility and clever defense kept him on the mat with the giant for eighteen minutes then he succumbed to the inevitable. Many times during the struggle the ludicrousness of the two opponents struck the crowd which was kept in good humor.

Conley's work was not so spectacular, but was just as effective. Like Metro, he assumed the defensive and once when he got a tight grip around Dr. Roller's waist, the big man led him a merry footrace around the mat in an effort to break the hold. Conley held on as though he had grown fast. He, too, finally succumbed after keeping up his defensive work for 20 minutes.

Bowser's appearance was greeted with cheers from the crowd. The two men struggled for advantage for some time before they went to the mat. Not being called upon to conserve his strength in a 20-minute encounter with his opponent, Bowser used all his strength and agility in both offensive and defensive work.

Dr. Roller's clever and effective methods of attack which had been more or less successful with his other opponents, failed in most cases to get the Newark athlete. Bowser was not on the "under dog" most of the time by any means. He managed to break even on the offensive during most of the match. In the last ten minutes he caused the Gotham doctor to call upon much of his speed and wind to keep out of dangerous situations. In fact Dr. Roller "got all het up" and when the final sixty minutes was tolled off he was perspiring freely, there was a ruddy glow in his face and he appeared to be shy on wind.

After donning his robe and taking a rub down, the physician stepped to the footlights and waited for a few minutes while he regained his breath.

The crowd, impatient, called for a speech. He held up his hand. "It takes wind to speak—as well as wrestle," he panted. Then he made the shortest speech on record in local wrestling matches. "I'll take back what I said about seeing the best middleweight on the Pacific coast," he said. "I now find him in Newark. He is Paul Bowser." Then he went to his dressing room.

The preliminaries furnished some unusual entertainment last night. Dale Slater met a new man in Albert Dobas. It was a ten minute limit event which Dobas won with two falls. Slater got the second fall. Dobas' first fall was in 2 1-2 minutes. Slater's lone decision was in 1 1-2 minutes. Dobas got the third fall and the decision in 3 1-4 minutes.

In the second event, Lesly Fishbaugh and Sylvester Winters, who have appeared in twelve matches in the last year, set a new record. One of them got a fall. After 7 1-2 minutes of wrestling full of action, Fishbaugh pinned Winters to the mat. When the boys returned to finish the argument, they went the remaining 2 1-2 minutes without a fall.

In the semi-final Harry Lees a new man and Harry Karnes staged another warm engagement. Karnes got a fall in 8 1-4 minutes. Neither man was able to get a second fall in the 1 3-4 minutes remaining.

No wrestling program in recent months has so entertained the crowd as did last night's bargain bill. From the beginning there was no idle moment and the crowd showed its appreciation by generous applause.

INTEREST

THE YOUTH IN ATHLETICS AND HE WILL AVOID ALL DISSIPATION.

Dr. Roller Tells Not Only How to Have Strong Bodies But How to be Gentlemen.

When the times comes that Dr. Roller is too old to wrestle, which from all appearances is some time in the future, he might try the lecture platform as a pastime in case his medical practice does not consume all his time. He talked to Newark men and women last night, who were assembled to see him throw five men in an hour—which he did not do. He told them some truths which probably will not do much good, but which will certainly do no harm. And the hundreds of young men present could do much more to follow his suggestions and advice.

The crux of his short talk was this: Arouse the interest of the young man in clean athletics and he will voluntarily avoid all forms of dissipation. A very simple cure all for cigarette smoking, drinking, over eating and numerous other forms of dissipation which are doing much to make the 20th century young man a weakling.

"We are all eating and drinking too much," said the physician-wrestler. "More attention to clean athletics would remedy much of this. I like wrestling best of all, for no sport is so productive of quick results as this mat game which you are to see tonight.

"Wrestling contests are not—or should not be conducted solely for the sake of victory or for the money consideration. It has more important results than that. It is a game that requires splendid physical training, skill and science, all of which go to make a real man.

"Interest the young man in clean athletics to the extent that he is thoroughly wrapped up in it, and you will not have to warn him against cigarettes, drink or other dissipation.

"I came here tonight to meet Mr. Bowser, principally because I heard that he was one of the cleanest wrestlers in the country. Another reason was that I am fond of Ohio. It has produced some great men, McKinley, Buffalo Bill and my father. He was a native of Coshocton county."

Dr. Roller related some of the incidents of his life as a wrestler which proved interesting, before concluding his talk. Later he took occasion to say a few words to the crowd, which also were to the point, and could well be headed. These remarks came just before he went on the mat with Bowser. He was prompted to utter the words by remarks made by certain ones in the audience while he was wrestling with Metro and Conley. Some one suggested that "he break an arm" or some such alleged joke. Referring to these unnecessary remarks, he said:

"There is no more reason why there should be rowdyism at a wrestling match than at a grand opera performance. Gentlemen in the audience do not make such remarks as I refer to, and I trust that others will not."

BALL PLAYERS FRATERNITY MEANS BUSINESS: WILL EXPEL MEN WHO SIGN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Jan. 12.—The declaration of President Fultz of the baseball players' fraternity that unless requests for the betterment of conditions for minor league players were granted there would be no need for training camps this spring gave a serious aspect today to the controversy between owners and players. The fraternity last night showed that it meant business by announcing expulsion of Harry F. Sallee, the New York National league pitcher, on the ground that he had broken his pledge to await permission of the organization before signing a contract.

DENISON OPENS SEASON SATURDAY WITH CAPITAL U.

Granville, Jan. 12.—Denison University's basketball team will open the regular season Saturday night with Capital University of Columbus as the attraction at Granville. The team has been put through hard practice for about five weeks and the general opinion around the hill is that the Columbus team is in for a trimming.

The varsity scrimmaged the freshman team last night and while the former never was in danger of being headed, the first-year men gave them a hard battle.

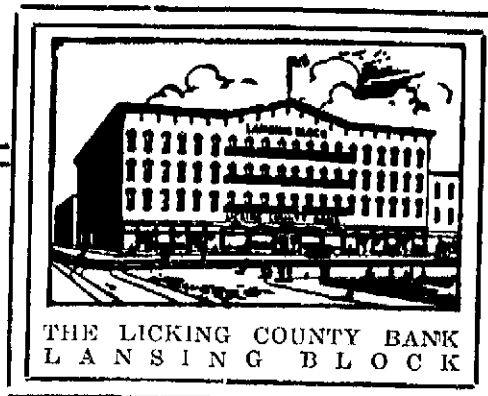

Denison's next game will be against Cincinnati University, on January 19, and will be played in Cincinnati.

DENISON GETS NO GAME WITH BROWN.

Granville, Jan. 12.—Faculty Manager Coons of Denison University has announced proposed Brown University football game for next fall had been called off because of the inability of the managers of the two eleven to agree on a definite date. It was the general opinion that the Big Red team was to go to Providence on October 13, but a telegram stated that the only date available now was November 3. Manager Coons declined this date as Miami is to be met then at Dayton.

DEUTSCHLAND STARTS FOR UNITED STATES?

New London, Conn., Jan. 12.—According to reports current in well informed marine circles here, yes, toward the German commercial submarine Deutschland left Bremen on Jan. 2, bound for New London. Officials of the Eastern Forwarding Company were not in the city tonight and efforts to obtain verification from other sources, were unavailing.

How a Machine Does Our Bookkeeping

We have installed a remarkable machine in our Accounting Department—a machine which adds and subtracts, tells the date, keeps our books and gets out monthly statements. It does all this work much faster than any bookkeeper could, and has never been known to make a mistake.

The installation of this Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine means that our accounts will be handled just as rapidly and accurately as those of the largest and most up-to-date banks in the country.

Insures Accuracy

The fact that our figure work is done on a Burroughs is a guarantee to our customers of absolute accuracy in the handling of their accounts. The machine method of ledger posting makes it impossible for a mistake to get past unnoticed. This accuracy insurance alone is important enough to you and to us to justify the use of the machine method, but there are many other advantages.

Better Service to You

The Burroughs will handle our figure work in about half the time formerly needed. This gives us more time for other things—time to improve the service in every department of the bank.

We don't want you to think of this bank just as a place to deposit your money, although of course we are glad to have you keep as large a balance with us as possible. It is our desire to render our patrons every service and accommodation that can be reasonably expected from us.

Talk over your business problems with us. It is part of our work to study business and financial conditions, and it may be that we can suggest some ideas that you will find worth while. Please feel free to consult us at any time.

Ford Announcement!

Hundreds of unfilled orders for Ford cars are still held by our agents in the cotton growing districts of the south. Our northern assembly plants are working up to their capacity to fill these orders. Under normal conditions we should have 100 Ford cars on hand for the spring rush, but naturally we are not permitted to stock cars while other dealers cannot fill their immediate orders. If you are contemplating the purchase of a Ford car in the spring, anticipate the shortage that will prevail and BUY NOW. The factory will fill our orders for immediate delivery for a short time only, after which time we can make absolutely no promise on deliveries.

J. HOWARD JONES OFFERED POSITION BY ATT'Y GENERAL

Columbus, January 12.—It was announced today that Attorney General Joseph McGhee has offered the position of special counsel to J. Howard Jones of Newark.

J. HOWARD JONES.

Mr. Jones admitted to the Advocate this afternoon that he had received from the attorney general an offer which he is now considering. He has not as yet decided the matter. Mr. Jones is associated with Roderic Jones in the well known law firm of Jones & Jones. He is a successful and very capable attorney who a few years ago served the county admirably as prosecuting attorney.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, Jan. 12.—Temperature fell suddenly last night, taking a few people unaware. Who, as a result, were engaged this morning in thawing frozen pipes. If the weather could remain as it has been today, cold, bright, and stimulating, there need be no exodus to California and Florida, as is the case here every winter. It is the constant change from warm to cold that is hard on the average constitution.

Mrs. Margaret Halderman has been on the sick list at Monomoy Place, during the last week, and has been attended by her daughter, Mrs. Edward M. Jones of Lucasville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey have planned to leave for Los Angeles, California, next week for a three months' stay.

Mrs. Reuben King and Mrs. Warren Deviney are to spend the winter in Florida, leaving Granville next Tuesday.

Miss Grace Chamberlin, librarian, reports another successful month for the Granville Library. She says that the reading would increase by half if two or three hundred dollars could be invested in good books. She is endeavoring to complete the files of several periodicals, and friends of the library are asked to communicate with her regarding any magazines they may have on hand. The library extension lecture course is a move in the right direction, and several good numbers are scheduled for the near future. The following gifts have been appreciated: one volume by Mrs. C. B. Slack, one by Roland Sheets, one by Mrs. William Megaw, one by Miss Esther Carter, and one by Mrs. J. Upham. A Christmas present of 5 children's books was received from Mrs. C. B. White.

Mrs. Clark W. Chamberlain, with her two daughters, Margaret and Elizabeth, left today for Mansfield for a week end visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lee Cotter.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Huston of the Columbus road, leave this evening for the west. After a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Henry Eaton in Burlington, Iowa, they will proceed to San Diego, Calif., where they will spend the remainder of the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bartlett.

Mrs. Ida Eno Carner, a Granville visitor during the fall, has sailed for her home in Sea Cliff, Barbadoes, B. W. I.

Musical lovers will enjoy a rare treat next Tuesday evening, January 16, when Olive Cleveland Howard, with assisting singer, will give her famous lecture recital on Indian music in Recital hall at 8:00 o'clock. The "Little Gem Exchange," formerly the "Tea Cups," again has changed hands, having been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and the Evans sisters, from the Miller brothers.

If you are in Chicago on Saturday evening, February 3, you will enjoy a pleasant evening by accepting the invitation of Mr. Samuel B. Brierley, president of the Hamilton Alumni Association, to his home No. 644 East Fifty-first street, from 8 to 11.

Prof. R. W. Soule, head of the voice department in Denison and Mrs. Corinne Lockman, also of the voice department will give a recital in Newark this evening in the high school auditorium. Tickets for the Newark Women's club course are good for this concert.

A dozen friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell, spent Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Case in West Broadway.

Dr. H. G. Sheidt of College and Pearl streets has returned home from a business trip to Milwaukee and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Bell of Columbus, Long Island, will be guests at this evening of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Johnson. Afterward the party will attend the basket ball game in Cleveland hall, between Denison and Case.

Rehearsals are in full swing for "Katharine," which is to be given at the public school. It will be a pleasure to sing with the great Russian Symphony Orchestra and every one who can do so, should enter this fine chorus at once, as no time is to be lost.

Friends of Mr. Carl Paige Wood formerly of the Denison conservatory will be saddened to learn of the sudden death of his father, Mr. Henry Wood, of Taunton, Mass., on Christmas Day, while he and Mrs. Wood were at the home of their son in Northfield, Minn.

jured and suffering from exposure might be lying on the Hackensack meadows, across which many fleecy persons made their escape, after numerous hardships, policemen in hip boots were detailed to make a search. It was considered possible that a number of the persons reported missing may have drowned in the meadow streams. Meanwhile returning families now homeless were provided with food and coffee in school houses and other shelters.

W. B. Harness, superintendent of the munition works, said he believed there was no loss of life. He did not know how the fire started, he said, nor could he estimate the damage.

Investigation today by New Jersey and New York police authorities of the explosion and fire in the Kingsland, N. J., plant of the Canadian Car and Foundry company, disclosed nothing to indicate that the origin was other than accidental. It was announced. Further inquiry is to be made and it is understood that the Russian commission agents for the purchase and delivery of approximately 1,500,000 shells awaiting shipment from this plant to Europe, will participate in this inquiry.

PETITION SAYS MRS. SHACKLEFORD WAS INFLUENCED

Relatives of the late Jane Shackelford, who with her brother, Elias Woodford (Woodfork) was brutally murdered in this city on February 17, 1916, are attempting to break the will of Mrs. Shackelford. The plaintiffs to the suit are Benjamin Woodford, Elmer Woodford and Ida Hewey, and the defendants, Samuel and Lucy Shackelford, Kenneth Black, Woodford and Viola Hall, minors, and D. M. Guy, executor of the estate of Jane Shackelford.

The petition recites that on March 18, 1916, a paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Jane Shackelford, and dated August 5, 1909, was filed for probate and by the terms of said paper writing Samuel and Lucy Shackelford were named as the legatees.

The plaintiffs claim that Mrs. Shackelford was possessed of considerable realty and personal property, and that undue influence was exercised in the drawing of the will. They ask that action be taken setting it aside and for all proper and general relief.

their object, which is at it should be there is one thing we miss, and that is a clear statement that they look forward to the American proposal of a league to enforce peace as an essential part of the guarantee for the future which are to be included in the conditions of peace, but this may be implied and we trust it is intended.

PARIS PAPERS APPROVE EXTENT REPLY TO NOTE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Jan. 12.—The morning papers are unanimous in their approval of the reply of the allies to President Wilson's note. The only difference being in the terms of expression. Alfred Capus, editor of the Figaro, says:

"The principal value of the note is the clear and solemn declaration of the allies as to their objects in pursuing the war. Either they will be fully attained or Germany will be a continual menace to Europe and upon the first opportunity will again turn it into a field of carnage."

Shepherd Pichon writing in the Petit Journal, says:

"Germany refuses to reveal her aims except in conference where she would work her usual treachery and divide in turn one against another the countries whose territory she violated and is now dismembering. The allies state clearly the objects they desire to obtain. In the United States of America they will distinguish between the two conceptions, the two methods, and President Wilson, jurist but also advocate of human ideas, will have no difficulty in making up his mind."

"We have spoken for the world," says the Petit Parisien, "for the entire peoples, for their adversaries and also for neutrals. President Wilson, whose fine sense of justice is known, cannot fail to be struck by the truthfulness of the document."

The Matin calls the document "a charter whereby the allies seek to create a stable and definite regime under which all people, great and small, can prosper in peace."

PARK MANAGEMENT NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR WATER STAGE

Emmett R. Deffenbach, manager of Buckeye Lake Park, today met with the board of directors of the Licking County Fish and Game Protective Association at the Park National Bank and a frank discussion of conditions at the lake, in which the association members and Mr. Deffenbach spoke plainly, resulted in a clearer understanding between them. The point at issue was the water stage at the lake this winter, which the local association has alleged has resulted in the death of thousands of fish. The association had been given to understand that the park management was instrumental in lowering the water level to allow some repairs.

Mr. Deffenbach presented a letter from the state board of public works stating unequivocally that the park management never requested a lower water level either directly or indirectly. "This board assumes full responsibility for the action and believes that the conditions which caused the order to be issued warranted such action," the letter stated.

A concrete wall, a part of the lake bank, undermined and weakened by the action of the waters was the cause of the order, it was stated. The bank was undermined at one place for a distance of 40 feet, the hole leading back under the wall for a distance of seven feet, and deep enough to permit a man to stand upright. There were other places where the concrete work had disintegrated, weakening the wall and endangering property between the lake and the Licking valley it was claimed.

In the discussion of conditions, it was found that the park management and the association has been working toward the same ends, each without the knowledge of the other. Both are seeking a change in the state law which will place all revenues derived from the lake in a fund for the upkeep and improvement of this important and beautiful inland watering place. This was the way the revenues were used several years ago until an act of the legislature placed the receipts in the general fund. Now the state board has difficulty in getting necessary appropriations for lake improvements.

The association of course is seeking the protection of the fish at the lake which, it claims, suffers seriously when the water is lowered.

The First Principle

Of sound, commercial banking is that the funds entrusted to a Bank by its depositors shall be invested in such a way as to be readily available.

This Franklin National Bank has for seventy-two years adhered to this principle and has loaned its depositors' funds in a very conservative manner, and in addition has always carried more than ample cash reserves.

Why not open your account here at once, and benefit through our careful, helpful service?
